Message from Angela

My dear friends, this week I have finally moved out of the Rectory and am now beginning to settle into my new home. It has been a difficult time with many delays and my mother becoming very ill. However we are expecting her home from hospital soon and I can now confidently give you my new address:

28 Signal Close, Henlow, Bedfordshire, SG16 6FF. As yet we have not got a telephone installed.

Thank you again for your incredibly generous gift to me. I have been able to buy a new bed, desk and sideboard and some Dior perfume. The picture will be a constant reminder of happy times and the roses will also be a reminder of my time with you. My mother and I are both looking forward to creating a garden. The Ely Cathedral rose is now in bud and is a glorious dark red.

Any time you are coming my way do pop in

With my love

Angela

Prayers for the Bereaved

Please pray for the families of Mike Matthews, Les Price, Pauline Hopkins, Robin Dring, Brenda Chant (Sue Jepperson's mother), Neil Salmon (Frank Salmon's Father), and Steve Martin who died recently.

Prayers for the Sick

Please pray for Barbara Gaskin, Gwyneth Page, Christine Gadd, and Monica Hunter.

We ask for particular prayers this week for Rosalind Meese's daughter and son-in-law Stephanie and Dominic after their baby, Henry, was stillborn. Please hold all the family, including Rosalind, in your prayers in this really hard time for them all. Could you also pray for Rev'd Angela's mother Pam. Whilst Angela has been trying to complete her move from the rectory, her mother has been in hospital.

On Monday 13th July (10.30am to 15.30pm), Sarah Warnes will run a workshop, about the basic skills of felting. Sarah graduated from Anglia Ruskin University and is a very experienced tutor. Whatever your competence level: beginner or just picky, you'll feel good taking home a masterpiece! The cost is £45 a head with all the equipment provided. Just bring yourself and your own lunch. Regrettably we have made this an adults only class (ages 16 and over please). You can drink as much as you like (coffee and tea). To avoid disappointment, book early as numbers are limited. Payment secures the booking, and refunds will not be made. Payment details and reservations through Sarah on sarahgwarnes@gmail.com.

On Saturday 29th June, FoSM will be joining the PCC in supporting the Fowlmere Village Summer Fete. We'll be selling refreshments and running games. Lisa is responsible for the refreshments and Barry the games. Volunteers are required to bake, man the refreshment stall, man the cornhole stall and various other side hustles. Volunteers are also required for humping and dumping, erecting and dismantling on Friday, Saturday and possibly Sunday. Please let Lisa and Barry know if you can help. Your village needs you. Lastly, please pledge me a bake (cake(s) or biscuits) by email Barry.a.jones1970@gmail.com.

From 13th July. Once again FoSM will run a Saturday morning Pop up Fruit Stall from the 13th July on their driveway of Dove House in Rectory Lane, Fowlmere. The stall helps East Anglian Fruit Farmers and us. We'll start with the usual cherries. Barry Jones and Lisa Turner
